

THE FUN ISSUE

Esquire

MAN AT HIS BEST

JUNE/JULY 2015

JASON STATHAM,

HAVING FUN →

PAGE 108

The 22 Best Jokes Ever

(ACCORDING TO PROFESSIONALS)

"A STRING
AND HIS FRIENDS WALK INTO A BAR..."

PAGE 134

... AND SPEAKING OF BARS

Best Bars ^{IN} AMERICA 2015

HELLO,
ST. LOUIS!

PAGE 77

The ESQUIRE SCHOOL OF COMEDY

WITH PROFESSOR
Patton Oswalt

PAGE 118

JUDD APATOW IN HIS OWN WORDS

(AND HANDWRITING)

PAGE 15

The Life of a Clown

YOU GOT A PROBLEM WITH THAT?
PAGE 124

Plus:
ONE SERIOUS STORY

PAGE 96

God Bless Magazines

SEE PAGE 12
FOR SWEEPSTAKES DETAILS

$4.99

07>

08276

0 279711 0

Style.

JUNE / JULY 2015

THE BEST OF SUMMER

'Cause it's finally here

FEATURING NEVILLE
WAKEFIELD

THE MAN:

The 52-year-old art-world Zelig partnered with Rimowa to create a limited-edition aluminum suitcase. For more on the man and his summer travel plans, head to esquire.com.

THE CLOTHES:

After months of griping about how cold it is, we can finally talk about something that matters—like how hot it is and the sartorial challenges thereof. Wakefield, in an artful pileup of lightweight, textured cloths, makes it look easy, and over the following pages we break down the best new clothes for enjoying the heat. Because summer is finally, finally here, and we all need to make the most of it.

PHOTOGRAPH BY AARON RICHTER

1. Double-breasted cotton jacket ($1,250) by Massimo Alba.

2. Cotton shirt ($295) by Massimo Alba.

3. Cotton-and-silk-blend trousers ($395) by Billy Reid.

4. Suede chukka boots ($158) by Banana Republic.

5. Aluminum suitcase ($7,500 for a set of two) by Neville Wakefield for Rimowa.